

HOLLY AREA YOUTH ASSISTANCE (HAYA)
MUSICAL INSTRUMENT LOAN AGREEMENT

Date: _____

HOLLY AREA YOU ASSISTANCE hereby places this instrument (and serial #) _____, in the responsible hands of a family in need of a musical instrument who either does not have one available to them, or does not have the means to rent one through a retail rental program. The instrument listed above is in optimal playing condition.

By reading through and agreeing to this loan, you are accepting full responsibility for the continued care for it under the following terms:

1. The student is responsible for the above instrument to be kept in good condition. Always store in a clean, dry place, and maintain it as needed after each use. If the student has any questions on what that involves, consult the band director.
2. ANY repairs needed during the duration of this loan is to be taken care of by the borrower. This means, the student needs to make any repairs aware to parent/guardian, and have them contact HAYA, so they can let the repair technician know. HAYA has an agreement with McCourt's Music, and they take care of the repairs for low or no cost.
3. Should theft, loss, fire or destruction occur, the replacement cost for the above instrument is $ _____ which you are agreeing you're responsible for should something unforeseen happen.
4. The borrower is responsible for contacting HAYA under the following circumstances:
 - a. Should any of your personal information change.
 - b. Immediate notification of the instrument being lost, stolen or any damage done.
 - c. After each year of this loan, the instrument be inspected by a representative of HAYA to determine whether or not the instrument requires service.

The terms of this agreement is from the above date and signature below until the last day of the current school year. The loan agreement may be extended with the mutual consent of signing individual and HAYA. The instrument can be returned at any time during this duration, providing all of the above was respectfully followed.

Thank you for coming to Holly Area Youth Assistance for your instrument needs. We look forward to your student making great music!
