DUAL ENROLLMENT OPTIONS

The University of Michigan-Flint offers four pathways through which students may pursue college level coursework while completing high school:

Dual Enrollment Educational Partnerships (DEEP): DEEP programs are cohort-style dual enrollment programs that range from 6-14 credit hours over an academic year. These programs are created in collaboration with a number of partnering school systems. Students must be enrolled at one of these partnering schools in order to participate in a DEEP program. A complete list of DEEP programs and schools can be found at www.umflint.edu/k12.

Early College: Early Colleges are an intensive three year high school program that combines the best elements of the high school and early university experience. Students must work with their high school counselor to apply for this program.

Which of the dual enrollment types are you pursuing? ○ DEEP ○ Early College
